

In the context of 13th Spanish Congress of Sociology (Valencia, Spain, 3–6 July 2019)

RC55 Research Committee on Social Indicators

invitation to participate in the 2019 Mid-term Conference

“Comparative Perspectives on Social Indicators”

Call for abstracts

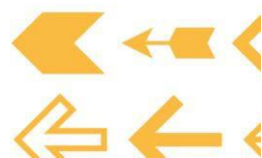

Grupo de Trabajo 43 (Work Group 43) ISA Research Committee 55: Social Indicators

From 3 to 6 July 2019 the 13th Spanish Sociology Conference, with the theme: Societies at the crossroads, the commitments of sociology, will be held in Valencia, Spain. The Spanish Federation of Sociology will organise the conference with the assistance of the Universidad de Valencia and the Asociación Valenciana de Sociología.

The RC55 Research Committee on Social Indicators of the International Sociological Association is pleased to invite authors to submit abstracts for oral presentations that address comparative research in the study of social reality, focusing on the construction and use of social indicators in comparative research among countries (including comparisons among regions or cities). Contributions can be of theoretical nature, applied studies or methodological reflections (either in a quantitative, qualitative or mixed perspective), but with a clear comparative focus (i.e. measurement and study of same phenomena in different countries). Thematically, contributions to all social indicators domains are welcome, like, for instance, social inequality, consumption, wellbeing, etc.

We expect to received contributions in some of these topics:

- Construction and use of social indicators in comparative research among countries: theoretical approach.
- Construction and use of social indicators in comparative research among countries: methodological reflections.
- Construction and use of social indicators in comparative research among countries: empirical evidence in quantitative approach.
- Construction and use of social indicators in comparative research among countries: empirical evidence in qualitative approach.
- Construction and use of social indicators in comparative research among countries: empirical evidence in mix-methods approach.

A publishing opportunity for participants at Special Issue on Social Indicators Research

A selection of contribution will be invited after the conference to submit a full version (on September) of their contribution for possible publication in a forthcoming Special Issue of Social Indicators Research Journal.
